THE INSTRUCTORS

MIKE BATTIE: Unicycle and Juggling - Mike has been teaching circus skills since 1985. He began sharing his performance expertise by becoming the resident juggling/unicycle/stilts instructor for Vancouver Cirkids with whom he worked for more than ten years. Mike spent four summers with the Ailanthus organization, teaching Street Performing skills as a vehicle for building self-esteem.

In 1995, he began training a group of Abbotsford youths to become the resident performers for the Western Canada Games in that city. This group of high-school students later went on to perform professionally with Mike at the PNE, Grey Cup Gala and in a movie. Mike annually travels to Winnipeg, Saskatchewan, Alberta, British Columbia, and Ontario to share his skills with "kids at risk" for the C.A.M.P. Program and C.A.P. Program as well as in schools, community centers, and at Festivals. Mike has also instructed for the Vancouver School Board's Adult Education program, taught privately for schools, colleges, and corporate functions, and conducted workshops at Science World and a wide variety of festivals. He has personally introduced more than 30,000 people to the joy of juggling. Since 2000 he spends 3 months of each year teaching camps in juggling, unicycle, wire, stilts and acrobatics.

REBECCA LEONARD: Aerialist/Actor/Choreographer - Rebecca is a Toronto based circus artist, trained actor and circus creator, she graduated from the Ecole Nationale du Cirque professional coaching program. For over 20 years, Rebecca has performed nationally and internationally with circus companies such as: Les Filles aux Lit, Hangtime, Circus Orange, HighStrung, Cirque Sublime, Cirque Eos, Lookup Theatre, Anti-Gravity. She has also appeared in feature films and circus productions around the globe.

Rebecca is delighted to have the opportunity to share her circus knowledge and to teach young people how much fun circus is. Let's get creative and learn that what looks impossible is really quite possible, if you just give it try!

JEFFREY OLYNEK: Unicycle & Juggling - Jeffrey is an artist and certified instructor who has been teaching and training juggling and unicycle for over 15 years. Jeff uses juggling as a way to develop many essential skills for children including: hand-eye co-ordination, focus, stress relief, improved learning capabilities and Brain growth! As a unicycle teacher, Jeff has noticed that students that learn to ride a unicycle gain confidence and self-esteem as well as peer respect. Jeff holds a BFA in acting from the university of Alberta.

SYLVAIN DROLET: Acrobat - Sylvain is a graduate of Ecole Nationale du Cirque in Montreal. He specializes in coaching hand stand and acrobatics. Sylvain has toured internationally and continues to perform and teach as a member of BC's CircusWest for the past 16 years.
