Music Therapy promotes health and wellness.

South Peace Hospice Palliative Care Society presents a one day Music Therapy Workshop conducted by Registered Music Therapist, Kelsi McInnis.

Date: Saturday, October 22, 2016
Time: 9:00 am to 3:00 pm (Doors open at 8:30 am)
Location: Sudeten Hall, 1901 Alaska Hwy, Dawson Creek, BC.
Cost: $25 - Lunch included (please pre-register by October 15, 2016)

Music Therapy is the therapeutic use of music and elements of music to stimulate neurologic change that promote health and wellness.

Music Therapy is for individuals with a focus on achieving goals in many areas including but not limited to; speech, socialization, emotional expression, behaviour and relaxation.

Clients work together with the therapist to renew, engage, motivate, express and build self esteem, while staying goal focused.

If you or a loved one are directly affected by a life limiting illness or grieving the anticipated or recent loss of a loved one, we are here to help.
